- Plaintiff brought this lawsuit against Defendants on behalf of himself and all other current and former drivers who allegedly worked for Saint George at any time between February 3, 2013 and the present. YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS LAWSUIT

ASK TO BE INCLUDED	If you choose to be included in this collective action, you must complete the consent form at the end of this Notice. You may then share in any proceeds from a settlement or judgment if those bringing the claims are successful, but you give up any rights to separately sue the Defendants for the same legal claims in this lawsuit.
DO NOTHING	By doing nothing, you will not be included in this Fair Labor Standards Act lawsuit.

1. Why did I get this notice?

You are getting this notice because Defendants' records show that you may have driven a vehicle pursuant to agreements the Defendants had with Carey Limousine NY, Inc., at some point between February 3, 2013 and the present, and performed work similar to the work Plaintiff alleges he performed.

2. What is a collective action and who is involved?

In a collective action lawsuit, one or more persons can bring a lawsuit on behalf of others who have similar claims. The individual who brought this lawsuit is called the Plaintiff. The corporate entity and individuals that are being sued are called the Defendants. One court resolves the issues for everyone who decides to join the case.

3. What is this collective action lawsuit about?

Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' compensation practices violated federal and state law. Plaintiff claims that he and others who performed work as drivers are entitled to unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, attorneys' fees, and costs.

Defendants deny any wrongdoing and/or liability and maintain that all drivers were paid in accordance with federal and state law.

4. How do I join this collective action lawsuit?

To participate in this lawsuit, you need to fill out the enclosed form called "Consent to Join Lawsuit" and mail it in the enclosed, postage-paid envelope to Plaintiff's Counsel, Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. 5. What happens if I join the collective action lawsuit?

You will be bound by any ruling, settlement, or judgment, whether favorable or unfavorable. If there is a favorable resolution, either by settlement or judgment, and you qualify under the law, you may be entitled to compensation. By joining this lawsuit, you may designate Plaintiff, or his counsel to make certain decisions on your behalf concerning the method and manner of conducting the case. Decisions made and agreements entered into by Plaintiff and/or his counsel relating to the lawsuit will be binding on you if you join the lawsuit and designate Plaintiff or his counsel as your representative.

While this lawsuit is pending, you may be asked to provide documents or information relating to your relationship with Defendants, which may include responding to written questions or answering questions in person under oath, either before or at trial. For this reason, if you join the lawsuit, you should preserve all documents relating to the Defendants currently in your possession. Plaintiff's attorneys will assist you.

6. What happens if I do nothing at all?

You will not be included in this lawsuit and you will not be affected by any settlement or judgment rendered in this case, whether favorable or unfavorable. The limitations period on your federal claims continues to run.

7. Can I participate in this collective action lawsuit regardless of my immigration status?

Yes. You have a right to participate in this Lawsuit regardless of your immigration status.

8. If I join, will there be any impact on my employment?

Federal law prohibits Defendants from discharging or retaliating against you in any manner because you join this case.

9. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

Plaintiff is represented by Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. If you choose to join this Lawsuit, Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. will represent you on a contingency fee basis, meaning that you will not owe any attorneys' fees unless Plaintiff is successful and wins the case or obtains a settlement, in which case the Court will determine the amount of attorney's fees to be paid.

You do not have to be represented by Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. and may instead hire another attorney of your choosing, at your own expense, or you may represent yourself in court without the assistance of a lawyer (this is referred to proceeding pro se). If you intend to retain your own lawyer or to represent yourself, you should indicate this on the "Consent to Join Lawsuit" form. If you send back your form but do not indicate that you intend to retain your own lawyer or to represent yourself, it will be assumed that you want Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. to represent you.
