Plaintiff,

-against-

ELIZABETH II, CORP., JOYERIA ELIZABETH III,
CORP., and TOMASA IZAQUIRRE, individually,

Defendants.

Civil Action No.: 17-cv-05136
(SHS)

COURT AUTHORIZED NOTICE OF LAWSUIT

If you worked for Joyeria Elizabeth I, Corp. and/or Joyeria Elizabeth II, Corp. and/or Joyeria Elizabeth III, Corp. and/or Tomasa Izaquirre (“Joyeria Elizabeth” or “Defendants”) as a sales clerk at any time between July 7, 2011 and the present, please read this Notice.

*Important: You are NOT being sued. This Notice is NOT a solicitation from a lawyer.
The Court authorized this Notice.*

- Plaintiff, Fiordaliza Diaz, is a former employee of Defendants, where she worked as a sales clerk.
- Plaintiff brought this lawsuit against Defendants on behalf of herself and all other current and former sales clerks who worked for Defendants at any time between July 7, 2011 and the present. Plaintiff claims that she worked in excess of forty hours per week and that Defendants did not pay her for all hours worked in excess of forty per week at the legal overtime rate, in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act and New York law. Defendants deny any wrongdoing and maintain that they paid all of their employees in accordance with federal and New York law.
- The Court has authorized the parties to send out this Notice. The Court has not decided who is right or who is wrong. However, your legal rights may be affected, and you have a choice to make now.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS LAWSUIT
ASK TO BE INCLUDED	If you choose to be included in this collective action, you must complete the consent form at the end of this Notice. You may then share in any proceeds from a settlement or judgment if those bringing the claims are successful, but you give up any rights to separately sue the Defendants for the same legal claims asserted in this lawsuit.
DO NOTHING	By doing nothing, you will not be included in this lawsuit.

1. Why did I get this notice?

You are getting this notice because Defendants' records show that you may have worked for them as a sales clerk at some point between July 7, 2011 and the present.

2. What is a collective action and who is involved?

In a collective action lawsuit, one or more persons can bring a lawsuit on behalf of others who have similar claims. The individual who brought this lawsuit is called the Plaintiff. The corporate entities and individual that are being sued are called the Defendants. One court resolves the issues for everyone who decides to join the case.

3. What is this collective action lawsuit about?

Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' compensation practices violated federal and state law. Plaintiff claims that she and others who were or are employed by Defendants as sales clerks are entitled to unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, attorneys' fees, and costs.

Defendants deny any wrongdoing and maintain that they paid all of their employees in accordance with federal and New York law.

4. What is the purpose and effect of this notice?

This notice is for the sole purpose of determining those persons who wish to be involved in this case.

If you elect to join this case, you may share in any settlement or judgment if the Plaintiff is successful. There are no assurances that any recovery will be awarded.

You should be aware that a claim under the FLSA must be brought within two years of the date the claim accrues, unless you can prove that your employer's violation was "willful," in which case the claim must be brought within three years.

5. How do I join this collective action lawsuit?

To participate in this lawsuit, you need to fill out the enclosed form called “Consent to Join Lawsuit” and mail it in the enclosed, postage-paid envelope to Plaintiff’s Counsel, Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. 6. If I choose to join this lawsuit, will I have to participate in any legal proceedings?

Most likely. If you choose to join this lawsuit, you may be required to provide information and answer questions relating to your employment with the Defendants. You may be required to testify at a deposition or at trial, respond to written questions, and produce documents relevant to the case. For this reason, if you join the lawsuit, you must preserve all documents and electronically stored information relating to your employment with the Defendants currently in your possession. Plaintiff’s attorneys will assist you with these requirements.

7. What happens if I do nothing at all?

You will not be included in this lawsuit and you will not be affected by any settlement or judgment rendered in this case, whether favorable or unfavorable. The limitations period on your claims continues to run.

8. Can I participate in this collective action lawsuit regardless of my immigration status?

Yes. You have a right to participate in this Lawsuit regardless of your immigration status.

9. If I join, will there be any impact on my employment?

No. Federal law prohibits Defendants from discharging or in any other manner retaliating against you because you join this case or have in any other way exercised your rights under federal law.

10. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

Plaintiff is represented by Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. If you choose to join this Lawsuit, Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. will represent you on a contingency fee basis, meaning that you will not owe any attorneys’ fees unless Plaintiff is successful and wins the case or obtains a settlement, in which case the Court will determine the amount of attorney’s fees to be paid.

You do not have to be represented by Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. and may instead hire another attorney of your choosing, at your own expense, or represent yourself pro se without the assistance of a lawyer. If you intend to retain your own lawyer or to represent yourself, you should indicate this on the “Consent to Join Lawsuit” form. If you send back your form but do not indicate that you intend to retain your own lawyer or to represent yourself, the Court will assume that you want Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. to represent you.

This notice and its contents have been authorized by District Judge Sidney H. Stein of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, located in New York, New York. The Court has not yet ruled on whether Plaintiff’s claims or Defendants’ defenses have any merit.
