|---|--|
| ASK TO BE INCLUDED | If you choose to be included in this collective action, you must complete the consent form at the end of this Notice. You may then share in any proceeds from a settlement or judgment if those bringing the claims are successful, but you give up any rights to separately sue the Defendants for the same legal claims in this lawsuit. |
| DO NOTHING | By doing nothing, you will not be included in this lawsuit relating to claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act. |

1. Why did I get this notice?

You are getting this notice because Defendants’ records show that you may have worked as a non-managerial construction employee during all or some part of the period of July 25, 2010 to the present, and performed work similar to the work Plaintiff alleges he performed.

2. What is a collective action and who is involved?

In a collective action lawsuit, one or more persons can bring a lawsuit on behalf of others who have similar claims. The individual who brought this lawsuit is called the Plaintiff. The corporate entity and individual that is being sued are called the Defendants. One court resolves the issues for everyone who decides to join the case.

3. What is this collective action lawsuit about?

Plaintiff alleges that Defendants’ compensation practices violated federal and state law. Plaintiff claims that he and other employees who are similarly situated to him are entitled to unpaid overtime wages, liquidated damages, attorneys’ fees, and costs.

Defendants deny any wrongdoing and/or liability and maintain that all of their employees were and continue to be paid in accordance with federal and state law.

5. What happens if I join the collective action lawsuit?

You will be bound by any ruling, settlement, or judgment, whether favorable or unfavorable. Plaintiff is represented by Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. You do not have to be represented by Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. and may instead hire another attorney of your choosing, at your own expense, or represent yourself pro se without the assistance of a lawyer. If you intend to retain your own lawyer or to represent yourself, you should indicate this on the "Consent to Join Lawsuit" form. If you send back your form but do not indicate that you intend to retain your own lawyer or to represent yourself, the Court will assume that you want Borrelli & Associates, P.L.L.C. to represent you.
